The Story of a Medicine.
The name—Golden Medical Discovery—was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famous "Golden Medical Discovery" for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, doctors and nurses of this country who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised. A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, croup, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

HEARST WILL ACCEPT.
William Randolph Hearst announced in New York last night that he will accept the nomination for the mayoralty on the citizens' independent ticket. In doing so, however, he makes one important condition. There must be nominated an entirely independent ticket to accompany him.

Supreme Court Justice William J. Gaynor, the democratic majority nominee, issued an interview, in which he disclaimed responsibility for the nomination of alleged unfit candidates on the democratic county and borough tickets and Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, accused the republicans of urging Hearst to enter the field to detract from the democratic vote.

It became a certainty yesterday that the majority contest would become a three-sided one. As proof of this a group of independents filed notice with the board of elections that their organization will be known as the "civic alliance."

With the adoption of this new name it is believed that the old independence league, under whose banner Hearst conducted his former fights, will cease to play an important part in New York politics. Hearst followers charge that the machinery of the old party was stolen through Tammany manipulation at the recent primaries.

Justice Gaynor's statement yesterday, issued in reply to a Hearst challenge, called the attempt to hold him responsible for the nomination of his minor associates on the democratic ticket "dishonest and fraudulent."

WOMAN WATCHED DUEL.
Miss Louise Dittman, a pretty pianist and soloist, sat in the parlor of her home in Chicago yesterday and calmly watched two men fight a knife duel for her love until both suitors fell unconscious. Then she called the police, who took the duellists, Tony Begupa and William Walker, to the County Hospital. Both men are reported to be dying of their wounds.

The men fought nearly half an hour. Each had more than a score of knife wounds when the duel ended. Miss Dittman told the police that both Walker and Begupa had been wooing her and quarreled as to who was the favored suitor.

"Louise is my sweetheart," Walker is reported to have told his rival after an argument in the parlor.
"Whose girl are you?" asked Begupa of the woman, according to the police, Miss Dittman merely smiled.
Walker became enraged and rushed at Begupa with a drawn knife.
"I'll show you whose girl she is," said Walker.
Begupa drew a knife from his pocket and replied:
"Come on, I am just as good a man as you are."
The duel followed. The woman sat in a corner and watched closely while the men stabbed each other. When they sank to the floor unconscious she went to the telephone and called the police.

SUICIDE OF YOUNG WOMAN.
A dispatch from Mantes-Sor-Sine, France, says the villa of Daniel Bidway Knight, the American painter, at Rolleboise, overlooking the Seine, was the scene of a dramatic tragedy Wednesday. Armande Pissot, a 17-year-old girl, renowned throughout the country side for her beauty and who served Mr. Knight in the double capacity of domestic and model, after being publicly jilted at a village ball by her lover, Gustave Fortune, returned to Mr. Knight's home, took the painter's shotgun and, placing the barrel under her chin, blew off her head.

Before killing herself Armande wrote a pathetic letter to her father, a chimney sweep in Paris, and to her sisters adjuring the latter to avoid love affairs and never to believe man's word. When Fortune heard of the tragic death of his sweetheart he tried to kill himself.

The funeral of the girl yesterday was the occasion of a remarkable demonstration of affection for her. The entire population of the village attended the services and followed the coffin to the grave. Mr. Knight paid all funeral expenses. He says that the girl had a face of the most remarkable beauty he had ever seen. She was posing for pictures. Mr. Knight is painting, which he said are valued by him at $50,000.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.
A murderous attack in Berlin, Thursday night, on a titled woman well known to the night life of the Prussian capital, followed by the suicide of her assailant, came to light yesterday when the Countess Augusta von Strachwitz died in a hospital. The woman was shot and stabbed by Alfred Friedlander, a clerk 23 years old, who was infatuated with her. After wounding the countess the clerk turned his revolver upon himself.
